

EDITOR'S NOTE

Anelise R. Corseuil

Ilha's thematic issue on the importance and uses of postcolonialist theory in Brazil and Canada has been structured within a dynamics of exchange of commentaries and reviews among the invited editors of the issue, Sergio Bellei and Neil Besner, and the writers of the various articles. Within this dialogic perspective, the editors provide a commentary on each article, as well as the opportunity for the authors to respond. The excellence of the articles and the innovative format of this issue further demonstrate Ilha's engagement with important international research, theory and analysis being produced within the various areas that the journal has set out to cover.

Ilha do Desterro	Florianópolis	nº 40	p.009-010	jan./jun. 2001
------------------	---------------	-------	-----------	----------------

