

Contents

Editorial	7
------------------------	---

Dossier: Economic Sociology

Introduction

Cécile Hélène Jeanne Raud and Marcia da Silva Mazon	9
--	---

The French sociological tradition versus Political Economy

Phillippe Steiner	13
--------------------------------	----

Business firms in national and local society: international perspectives for analysis of companies

Paola Cappellin and Paula Menezes	47
--	----

Auguste Comte's Critique of Political Economy

Gustavo Biscaia de Lacerda	73
---	----

Considerations on socially responsible business within contexts of inequality and exclusion

Ana Maria Kirschner	99
----------------------------------	----

State and market in post-reform Brazilian air transportation

Cristiano Fonseca Monteiro	117
---	-----

"So I took up the struggle!": rethinking economic representations and practices of popular groups through trajectories of social mobility

Lúcia Helena Alves Müller	145
--	-----

Market control through eco-efficiency and eco-consumption: an analysis based on supermarkets

Julia S. Guivant	173
-------------------------------	-----

New market actors: economic social movements and politicized consumers

Fátima Portilho	199
------------------------------	-----

Articles

Jewish immigration to Brazil and anti-semitism in the discourse of elite groups Natália dos Reis Cruz	225
Management councils and regulation: public assistance in times of transition Carla Cecília Rodrigues Almeida	251
Researching the individual determinants of trust in politics in Brazil Ednaldo Aparecido Ribeiro	271
On the body, reflexivity and power: a dialogue between Anthony Giddens and Michel Foucault Ivan M. Gomes, Felipe Q. de Almeida and Alexandre F. Vaz	299
The suffering of Tantalus: policies of vocational training for workers “thirsting” for work Áurea de Carvalho Costa	321
Contents	339
Publication norms for contributors	341