

Contents

Dossier: Entrepreneur, State and Society

Presentation	7
---------------------------	---

Entrepreneurs, politics and society in Latin America: the Mexican case Carlos Alba Vega	13
--	----

Effects of the global crisis in Post-Convertibility Argentina. Economic rationality under discussion Alejandro Balazote and Daniel Piccinini	69
---	----

Industrial entrepreneurs, interest representation and political action: historical trajectories and new configurations Eli Diniz	101
---	-----

Industrial entrepreneurs and political action regarding environmental norms for the Federal Legislature: correlating participation and influence Eugênia Rosa Cabral	141
---	-----

Political Science and the financial system in Brazil: article 192 of the Federal Constitution Marcus Ianoni	173
--	-----

Looking at micro-entreprise: elements for an alternative model Luiz Inácio Gaiger and Andressa da Silva Correa	205
---	-----

Articles

Between Americanism and Iberianism: social theory in the First Brazilian Republic Maro Lara Martins	231
--	-----

The Constitutions of the Vargas Era, from the perspective of authoritarian thought of the 1930s Fernanda Xavier da Silva	259
---	-----

Fundamentals of institutionalism in Thorstein Veblen's social theory Vagner Luís da Silva	289
Transversality in collective action: network experience as a possibility for critique and public voice Alexandre Almeida de Magalhães	325
Special Consumer Defense Courts: expanding rights within democracy Saskya Miranda Lopes and Ruthy N. Laniado	359
Contents	393
Publication norms for contributors	395