

Contents

Dossier: Social Movements and institutional participation

Social Movements and institutional participation: introducing the debate

Ilse Scherer-Warren and Ligia H. Hahn Lüchmann ..... 9

Global, conventional and warring movements and the suppression of contention: themes in contentious politics research

Sidney Tarrow..... 25

Commentary: The quest for a new research agenda on social movements and political conflict: dialogues with Sidney Tarrow

Breno Bringel ..... 51

Cultural movements and the emergence of a new “politicalness”

Fernando Calderón ..... 75

Commentary: Collective action and Latin America: on views and paradoxes of the emergent “politicalness”

Carlos A. Gadea..... 97

Anti-utilitarian critique in the North and its importance for advancing post-colonial thought in societies of the South

Paulo Henrique Martins ..... 111

The Black Movement in Brazil: the absent, the emergent and the production of knowledge

Nilma Lino Gomes..... 133

The institutionalization of citizen participation in Colombia: notes for an interpretation

Fabio E. Velásquez ..... 155

Communal councils in Caracas as seen by their participants: an exploration

Margarita López Maya..... 187

Participation of representatives of civil society in the public sphere in Latin America Maria da Glória Gohn .....	233
---	-----

Articles

Principles or rules? The Embraer case and juridical disputes within the Labor Court José Luiz de Oliveira Soares .....	245
---	-----

New patterns of labor relations and union action in the telecommunications sector: contributions from a case study in Paraíba Roberto Vêras de Oliveira .....	271
--	-----

Social networks and political capital: a theoretical and methodological proposal for the analysis of Brazilian political party organizations Maria Teresa Miceli Kerbauy and Raiane Patrícia Severino Assumpção .....	301
--	-----

Schools and norms in conflict: an essay on educational institutions and human rights Rodrigo Manoel Dias da Silva .....	333
--	-----

Music in the construction of collective identity within the MST (Movement of Landless Workers) Apoliana Regina Groff and Kátia Maheirie .....	351
--	-----

Contents .....	371
-----------------------	-----

Publication norms for contributors .....	373
---	-----