

Contents

Presentation

Ary Cesar Minella and Jacques Mick.....7

Dossier: Science, Technology and Society

*Org. Julia S. Guivant,
Alberto Cupani e
Pierre Delvenne*

Presentation: A series of contributions only seemingly heterogeneous

Julia S. Guivant, Alberto Cupani e Pierre Delvenne..11

The Weberian analysis of science

Carlos Eduardo Sell.....23

Trans fat: between scientific controversies and strategies of the food industry

Marília Luz David e Julia S. Guivant49

Environmental impacts assessment: reshaping technological innovation

Thales Novaes de Andrade.....75

Transgenic and society in agenda of Brazilian research

*Maria Cristina Piumbato Innocentini Hayashi, Camila Carneiro Dias Rigolin and
Carlos Roberto Massao Hayashi*99

Agricultural biotechnology and “soybeanization” in Argentina: public controversy, construction of consensus, and expansion of the regulatory framework

*Ana María Vara,
Agustín Piaz y
Florencia Arancibia* 135

Treating nanoparticles with precaution: recognising qualitative uncertainty in scientific risk assessment

*Fern Wickson, Frøydis Gillund e
Anne Ingeborg Myhr* 171

Have STS fallen into a political void? Depoliticisation and engagement in the case of nanotechnologies

François Thoreau and Pierre Delvenne 205

Articles

Elements for a sociological reflection on the mobility of researchers and scientists

Sandra Moreira and Emília Araújo 227

Race, class and revolution in the Brazilian Communist Party (1922-1964)

Pedro C. Chadarevian 255

Ruling class and political culture in Paraná state (2002-2010)

Renato Perissinotto and Paula Adriana Wagnitz 285

Review

Nation, state and citizenship in nineteenth century Brazil

Diogo da Silva Roiz 309

Contents 317

Publication norms for contributors 319