

CONTENTS

Presentation

Maria Ignez Silveira Paulilo e Valmir Luiz Stropasolas 7

AGRICULTURA FAMILIAR NO SÉCULO XXI

The Transformation of “Agroecological Ideas” Into Instruments of Government Intervention: dynamics of contestation and institutionalization of new ideas in pro-family farming policies

Claudia Job Schmitt 16

Rural Development Policy in Brazil: the dilemma between productive inclusion and social

Ademir Antonio Cazella, Adinor José Capellesso, Monique Medeiros, Andréia Tecchio, Yannick Sencébé, Fábio Luiz Búrigo 49

The End of the Food Acquisition Program: turnarounds for gatherer women in the State of Sergipe, Brazil

Heribert Schmitz, Dalva Maria da Mota, Glaucia Macedo Sousa 80

Greening in Family Agriculture, Fairs and Crafts in the Central Part of Rio Grande do Sul

Everton Lazzaretti Picoletto, Cristina Bremm 104

Coordination on Family Farming and Territorial Development: the case of coffee geographical indications

Mara Elena Bereta de Godoi Pereira, Ana Elisa Bressan Smith Lourenzani, Sandra Mara Schiavi Bankuti, Giuliana Aparecida Santini Pigatto 131

Out the Shadows: São Paulo’s women family farmers

Maria Aparecida de Moraes Silva Beatriz Medeiros de Melo Lara Abrão de Moraes 179

From Invisibility to Recognition: rural women, productive activities, household activities and care

Karolyna Marin Herrera 208

The Land Reform Debate in Brazil Under the Current Rural Context

Lauro Mattei..... 234

Rural Women, Social Movement and Political Participation: reflections from the March of the Daisies

Vilenia Venancio Porto Aguiar 261

What Type of Feminism is this that Grows in the Vegetable Garden?

Maria Ignez Silveira Paulilo 296